

Kindness Counts

Quote Project

School is about to start, and we want YOU to have a say in how we start our year! So, your assignment for the last days of summer is to find five (or more!) quotes about kindness that really inspire you. On the back of this piece of paper, write your full name, the date, and the title “Kindness Counts” at the top. If you are stuck, you can search online for “quotes about kindness.” You’ll have many to choose from. Copy your quotes neatly and correctly. When you are done, you can safely store the quotes in your folder in the “language arts” section. We will talk about them during the first week of school! Be ready to share and be inspired!

Example:

“No one is born hating another person because of the color of his skin, or his background, or his religion. People must learn to hate, and if they can learn to hate, they can be taught to love, for love comes more naturally to the human heart than its opposite.” - Nelson Mandela
